Ebers Papyrus

Nederhof
Transcription of parts of Papyrus Ebers, on the basis of Möller (1927), pp. 23-25.
For a published transcription, see Wreszinski (1913).

Bibliography

Nederhof - English
Transliteration and translation of parts of Papyrus Ebers, on the basis of Möller (1927a), pp. 23-25.
The transliteration throughout follows Hannig (1995).

Bibliography
... jr mḫt=k ḫrj stt m nqꜣwt

... If you see someone suffering from mucus nḥt ḫt=f ḫr=s jw=f ḫr mn ḫq-jb=f and his belly is stiff because of it, while he has pain in his stomach, wnn stt=f m ḫt=f n ḫm{m} t=s wḏt nt his mucus is in his belly before it has found a way out, n ḫr wḏt prṛy=s jm=f ḫwḏ.w ḫr=s m ḫt=f n ṭr.n=s and it has no way out from him, then it will rot in his belly without coming out, ḥpr=s {j} m ḫst[S] tm.ḥr=s ḫpr(.w) m ḫst and turn into worms. It will completely turn into worms

1 Written ḫst.

r ḫpr=s m wnn mwt wšš.jn=f sj nḏm.jn=f ḫr-cw.j

until it becomes dead matter. Then he will pass it, and he will feel well immediately.
If he doesn't pass it as worms, you will prepare laxatives for him, so that he will feel well immediately. Spell against pain:

Pain leaves a swelling, pain leaves a swelling. (Lacuna in text.) With my arms,

I will stamp flat Busiris and will tear down Mendes. I will go to heaven and see what is done there. One will not do a thing in Abydos to expel the influence of a god, the influence of a goddess, the influence of a masculine pain demon, the influence of a feminine pain demon, the influence of a dead man, the influence of a dead woman, etc., or the influence of anything bad that is in this body of mine, in this flesh of mine, or in these members of mine. But if it expels itself, the influence of a god, the influence of a goddess, the influence of a masculine pain demon, the influence of a feminine pain demon, the influence of a dead man or dead woman, the influence of anything bad that is in this flesh of mine, in this body of mine, or in these members of mine, I will not speak, nn wḥm-ḥ ḏd bš qj ĵ q mj ḫpr and I will not repeat speaking: Vomit, throw up and perish, as should be done.

30,17 ḏd-mdw sp ḥr mnt s 30,17 Words to be said four times: The disease of the man is to be spat on.

30,17

48,21

sšr mjō ḥḥ n sp ḥḥtj-ō m ḫrt nt dr
A method that has been successful millions of times. Beginning of a remedy for curing

48,22

tst nt mwyt mr kns
a constriction of urine, when the pubic area is painful:

48,22

swt 1/8 bn 1/4 ḫḥ ps 1/4 mw 1/2 1/4 nd ć th 1/8 wheat, 1/4 dates, 1/4 cooked earth almonds, 3/4 water, to be ground and mashed, swr ḫw 4 kt nt ḫdt wsš ḥrd and swallowed for four days. Another remedy for making a child urinate

49,1

49,1 ṭsw n mwyt ntj m ḫt=f șt jst snwḥ.tj ḫr mrḥt in whose belly urine is constricted: An old document cooked in and his belly is to be rubbed in until his urine comes out.

Another remedy for making urine come out:

1/8 leaf of reed, 1/4 dates, 1/4 end of ḫyjt-plant,

1/4 bjt 1/2 1/64 prt w^n | 1/4 mw 1/16 ḫ.th swr r hrw 4
3/364 honey, 1/4 seed of juniper, 1/16 water, to be mashed, and swallowed for four days.

Another remedy: If you see a man with mucus in his neck, while he has pain in his head, has stiff cervical vertebrae, has a heavy neck, and he doesn't look at his belly as it is painful for him, then you will say: 'Someone who suffers from mucus in his throat.'

And you will let him put ointment on himself and rub himself in, so that he will feel well immediately. Another remedy:

After you have placed two bowls on the fire to heat them, that dough is to be placed in it. To be made to a cake. After it is baked, you will make it into a porridge with honey and fat of a cow.

To be eaten for one day. Another remedy for curing leucoma in the eyes:

Noise in the southern sky since dusk, uproar in the northern sky, a pillar has fallen in the water, the crew of Re is driving in their mooring post, because heads have fallen in the water. Who will fetch him and find him?
I will fetch him and I will find him. I have fetched your heads, have attached your necks, and have fastened your severed parts in their proper places. I have fetched you, to expel the influence of a god, of a dead man or dead woman, etc.

Words to be said with gall of tortoise, to be crushed with honey, to be put on the eye lids.

Another remedy for curing the bjudj-disease of the eyes: Real galena, to be put in water in a jar for four days. To be repeated by putting it in fat of pintail duck for 4 days. Then it is washed in the milk of the mother of a boy.

A pellet of incense is to be put in it unbroken. The eyes are to be rubbed in with it of someone whose eyes have the bjdj-disease. Another eye cream m šmw prt 3ḥt

in the season of harvest, the season of growing, or the season of inundation: Galena nd ḥr mrḥt ḫrp m dwḥ nn rdjt hḥ to be ground with ointment of white-fronted goose in the morning, without putting it ḥr ḫt sdm jm m grḥ on the fire. It is to be rubbed in in the evening.