Transliteration and translation for "Address to the visitor of the tomb of Sobekdjedju", following the transcription of Sethe (1924), p. 87.
The transliteration throughout follows Hannig (1995).

Bibliography
O living who are on earth, consisting of prophets and prophetesses, priests, and male and female musicians of this temple of Osiris, foremost of those in the west, who perform rituals there for their blessed dead, you say: 'A thousand of bread, beer, oxen, fowl, alabaster and clothing for the spirit of the chamberlain Sobekdjedju, born of Useretsat.'
